

Recover Lincolnshire Newsletter

Issue 3 • Sept 2020

Welcome to the Recover Lincolnshire newsletter.

Information on accessing the Recover Lincolnshire activity will be sent out regularly via Teaching Schools, Locality Leads and on the weekly school news bulletin through this newsletter. You can also visit the LTT website for all up to date information.

Thrive Network

The Thrive Network is open to all Lincolnshire Headteachers, with up to 150 places available. Focus themes will include resilience and resourcefulness, trust and team, culture and curriculum.

Good news - The deadline for registration has been extended to close of play on Monday 5th October.

Please use the Google form here to register.

Following registration you will be allocated to a network, each of which are being led by LTT Teaching Schools. Partnerships and relationships will be taken account of to complement existing collaborations.

Confident Choices

Following on from the success of the Confident Choices CPD Webinar Series during the summer term, we are really pleased that we have agreed a further series of 10 webinars for this term.

The presentations will run on Tuesdays at 4pm, beginning on 29th September.

Once again, we are grateful to the EAN Enterprise Adviser team, LincHigher and Complete Careers for their support and organisation. Complete Careers will again be hosting and we will share the Zoom links ahead of each weeks webinar.

You can find information about Confident Choices by clicking here or contacting Richard Hughes hughes.richardb62@gmail.com

Mobilise: Curriculum

Part 1 - Reconnection followed on from the trauma-informed series of PLCs, held in the summer term, focusing on Barry Carpenter's 5 levers, starting with the importance of re-building relationships and the idea of 'Rising Strong' from Sharon Gray, representing the Embark Federation. A follow-up presentation that schools can adapt to their own context can be found here.

Part 2 - Re-engagement takes place on Tues 29th Sept and is aimed at school leaders. Places can be booked by clicking here.

Mobilise: Making the Most of Funding for Tutoring

The summary of additional evidence and thoughts discussed at the Recover Lincolnshire Mobilise PLC on Tutoring, based on the NTP key messages is available by clicking here.

Part 2 is on 4th Nov at 11am. (subject to the government's update on tutoring organisations) Places are still available, the sessions are aimed at school leaders – click here to book.

the curriculum is now available. Steve Willshaw, the newly appointed Research Champion outlined the evidence-base that will be drawn on throughout this 10-PLC project to improve talk, reading and writing.

The first virtual PLC will take place on Wednesday 4th November; providers of secondary education are encouraged to register their interest now and contact mobilise@kyrateachingschool.com if you were unable to attend the taster session and require the recording link.

English curriculum recovery

We are inviting primary English leads / class teachers to attend moderation sessions for reading. One of the aims of the programme is to create a bank of exemplification materials for each year group from Year 1 through to Year 6 for reading.

This will be developed and built upon across 2020-2021. This will start in Spring 1 with sessions for:

- Year 1 and Year 2;
- Year 3 and Year 4;
- Year 5 and Year 6.

Click here to see the details of the sessions and details of how to book.

The Reading Programme

The first session of The Reading Programme is due to take place on Thursday 15th October.

The programme consists of six online sessions across Term 1 and 2 looking at the challenges posed in the teaching and learning of reading and strategies to support schools with meeting the needs of the children you are working with.

The sessions are for English Leads / Reading Leads or class teachers that would like support with reading.
