

The Power of Music to Change Lives

In response to the release of the new national plan for music education, join Becky Beavis (Arts Director and Music Lead for Platinum Artsmark School Bourne Westfield Primary Academy and Keystone Academy Trust) for three practical, progressive sessions.

These sessions are suitable for specialists and non-specialists alike and aim to build your knowledge and confidence in successfully leading music in your school and developing yourself as a practitioner and leader. There will be opportunities, at each session, to engage practically with the Music National Curriculum.

During the sessions, Becky will cover:

- The Power of Music to Change Lives (2022)
- The Ofsted Education Inspection Framework (including Cultural Capital)
- The Ofsted Research Review Series
- The Model Music Curriculum

Session 1: Developing the Music Curriculum
Tuesday 28th February 2023

Session 2: The Role of Cultural Capital
Tuesday 16th May 2023

Session 3: Preparing for an Ofsted Deep Dive Wednesday 21st June 2023

To book your place please visit:
<https://events.bookitbee.com/keystone-academy-trust/>
Email: gill.arnold@keystonemat.org

Sessions will take place in the Keystone training room at Bourne Westfield
Primary Academy,
PE10 9QS

Sessions will run from 9.15-3.00pm
Arrival from 9.00am

Cost £175 for all 3 sessions

The Power of Music to Change Lives

Further details on each session are provided below:

Session 1: Developing the Music Curriculum Tuesday 28th February 2023

Developing yourself as a Music Lead, including creating your own music development plan and ensuring your music curriculum can evidence the three Is (intent, implementation and impact)

Let's get singing!

Session 2: The Role of Cultural Capital Tuesday 16th May 2023

Review and evaluate your music development plan and decide on next steps and look at the role of cultural capital in your school. Becky will talk about opportunities to use music for self-esteem and wellbeing.

Let's get performing!

Session 3: Preparing for an Ofsted Deep Dive Wednesday 21st June 2023

Bringing the three sessions together by looking at partnership working, inclusivity and accessibility, achieving progression, monitoring and evaluating, etc. Becky will also talk about sustaining a whole-school music CPD programme, engaging with the Model Music Curriculum and preparing for an Ofsted deep dive.

Let's get composing!